Ruby Bridges was a brave young woman and today she still stands high and is a proud black woman. Ruby Bridges was 6 years old when she got allowed to go to a white school. Only her and 5 other students passed the exam. Two of those students did not go and they stayed at their own black school. After that on November 14 Ruby was accepted at the William Frantz Elementary school. Every day she went to school a ginourmous mob would crowd her and say mean things. Every single day federal marshals had to walk her to school so she would not get hurt. Even with all those mean people every day Ruby never missed a day of school. After some time Ruby was there for long her family did everything to keep her in that school. The grocery store would not let them buy any food. Rubys dad got fired from his job and her

Ruby's grandparents got evicted from their farm but Ruby kept going to school. Every single day Ruby prayed when she went to school. Ruby Bridges was a person who stands strong in American history, I think Ruby is a super brave and I could never do what she did. Ruby made a big difference in the world.
